

In order for the Bluffton Youth Theatre to grow and meet their goals, the following contracts should be carefully read and signed by the appropriate persons.

Parent's Contract

Each parent or guardian must commit to the following requirements:

- 1) I will get my child to rehearsals and performances on time.
- 2) I will encourage my child(ren) as well as other children to do their best.
- 3) I will communicate any concerns by email. I understand my input is valuable and appreciated.
- 4) I will listen to the directions of the director, or any other specified adults, and model respectful behavior.
- 5) I will read emails and texts sent and respond in a timely fashion.
- 6) I will help my child prepare in any way possible for their part.
- 7) I understand BYT depends on volunteers and will try to volunteer for at least 2 hours.
- 8) I will only have my child bring water in a leak proof water bottle to rehearsals and shows.
- 9) I will not change any part of my child's costume, unless given specific direction by the costume director.
- 12) I understand the importance of community awareness and will do my part to try and hang up the posters allotted to me.
- 13) I understand the importance that sponsors are crucial to the financial aspect of the theatre and will attempt to talk to businesses and fill one full page of ads.
- 14) I will follow the rules when I am a member of the audience, including, but not limited to, videotaping and cell phone use.
- 15) I will meet any deadlines given – handing in posters, sponsors, child's bio etc.
- 16) I understand that if my child is removed from the show, for any reason, I will not be receiving a refund of my tuition (if the cast list has already been sent out)
- 17) I will NOT bring my child(ren) to practice if they exhibit any signs of sickness such as, but not limited to, high temperature, fever, nausea, or coughing.
- 18) I will do my best to work with director to make sure my child has the best possible experience while at Bluffton Youth Theatre

Please note: Any parent or guardian may attend a rehearsal with their child, but must be respectful of the rules laid out by the Director or any other specified adult.

Bounced checks will have an addition $40 inconvenience fee**

Failure to fulfill any part of this contract may result in removal from the program.

The director and board will endeavor to be fair to both parties when considering any part of the contract that is broken.

Name (Printed): _____

Name (Signed): _____

Date: _____

Bluffton Youth Theatre – Photo Release Form

Please sign below

I grant Bluffton Youth Theatre permission to photograph my child any time they are at a BYT function. I grant them permission to use my child's photo for use on the Facebook page, Instagram, Website and playbills if it is for theatre use alone and not for personal use of any of the members.

I also recognize that, if my child is not able to attend the day assigned for professional headshots, I will pay a penalty of $50 for the photographer to return to take a photo of my child. I also realize that only the photographer chosen by Bluffton Youth Theatre may take my child's head shot.

I have read and agree with the above statements.

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Child's Name: _____

Date: _____